The Things That Make For Peace

Introduction

- Church convention can be rather drab affairs.
- Occasionally there are times when a convention should be reported on. Going around a corner,

1. We were lead by a truly remarkable president.
- Dr. Ayres - a man of deep spiritual insight who has suffered.
- Wonderful sense of humor.
  "Come in or get out."
  "Mosquito in a medicine camp. I don't know what to start."

2. We settled some of the major items of our own business.
- Heard a thrilling, dramatic report on CHEC.
  $8,200,000 for Christian Higher Education but 2500 Churches earns the loss.
- Settle the issue of our headquarters.
- Settle the issue of cooperative Christianity.
- Commissioned some excellent missionaries.
  - to the Belgian Congo and to Japan.
- Launched a program to renew the life of the Church.
3. We faced some of the crucial issues of our day.
- After all we were meeting in the city of
  Walter Rauschenbusch, the great social prophet.
- War and peace and human arms.
- Racial tension and the bib in South Africa.
- Forces threatening the separation of church and state.
- Christians confronting communism.

4. Our convention reached a new maturity.
- Facing issues and acting responsibly.
- The great theological issues of the day.
  - Dean White of Harvard and Mr.
    Mancy of Raleigh, North Carolina.
  - Our former fellow from Utah.

5. The deep inner sense of unity.
- We have difference, but this is God's gift.
- National freedom.
- Common experience of knowing Christ.
- Our sense of missionary obligation.
The Significance of Our Theme

1. The Scriptural Setting
   - Jesus coming to Jerusalem
   - Foreseeing the death and violence that was to befall Jerusalem.
   - Then: "Would that even today you knew the things that make for peace."
   - In order to give himself that we might know peace with God and with each other.
   - Once the love enters his life we become peace makers.

2. We Are Agents of Reconciliation
   - Between nations.
     - Women on plane - Norman Cousins.
     - Great instrument hand in England with 70 teams.
   - Between races, families and in all places where tension exists.
   - Most basically and fundamentally we are called to bring men and God together.

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

My dear Friends,

In going through some of the old issues of the Times, I recall so well coming across the last letter which Dr. Quinton addressed to the congregation before his untimely death during the convention at Cincinnati. He was struggling to convey some of the frustration and difficulties of that convention when session after session was devoted to the great debate about our headquarters location. So two years later, I take up the pen as your pastor to send you a few words from Rochester.

This is a different convention with a different spirit—showing, it seems, a deeper maturity than in Cincinnati. We have heard some magnificent addresses, particularly from Drs. Gezork of Andover-Newton, Miller of Harvard, Marney of North Carolina and Hintz of Chicago, struggling with the great issues of the day. In a time of family conflict, racism, and the rattling of atomic sabers it is crucial that we shall ask what it is that makes for peace. So we have turned time and again to the deepest resources of our Gospel for the answers.

Our CHEC report last night (Friday) was a dramatic statement of victory. The total pledged by American Baptists to undergird Christian Higher Education was $8,214,367, which put us well over the goal of $7,500,000. Our church can rejoice in the part it has had in this victory. Then we have settled the headquarters issue. We are going to Valley Forge! And there we will construct a unique, thrilling home for our total American Baptist family. On Monday, (this is written Saturday) we will debate the National Council issue. It seems now that we can settle this in great fashion.

By the time this issue of the Times reaches your home you will be aware that I was asked to assume the office of first Vice-President of our convention for this year. When the nominating committee by a unanimous vote asked me to assume this office, I felt I should respond affirmatively. I checked this matter with our church leaders before accepting this responsibility. Your prayers and support are deeply appreciated.

I hope to see you in church this Sunday. I will preach on the significance of this convention this Sunday.

In Christian love,
Pastor Fredrikson

FOLKS AND FACTS

Congratulations to Miss Connie Lee Waring, who was graduated from Sioux Valley Hospital School of Nursing on May 30. We are sorry that Connie’s name was omitted from the list of seniors published in the TIMES several weeks ago.

Many activities cease or change time during the summer months. It will be of great assistance if the officers will call the church office and report such changes so that the TIMES calendar may be kept up-to-date.

Mrs. Frank Heyl wishes to thank the people of the congregation for their prayers, calls, cards and other remembrances during her recent illness.

A WORD FROM THE MINISTER OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

What an exciting place this is this Monday, as I sit down to write these words! Vacation Church School has gotten off to a fine start. Young people are roaming around the building doing all sorts of things getting ready for the Tour. The senior adults are gathering for their XYZ Club meeting in the Parlor. A daughter and mother have been here to look over the chapel for wedding decorations. And the Railway Express Company has delivered our much delayed costume trunk for the tour play. What with all this, and the temptation of the VCS workers drinking their coffee down the hall, it is only Margaret Clark’s stern discipline that got me down to write at all.

It is not too late for your child to join the VCS. The groups are all doing exciting things, and any new child is always welcome. Perhaps some of you will want to start this next week, or sooner. And it is not too late to offer to serve refreshments to the workers. It would be a fine way to express your appreciation.

Nor is it too late to pray for the youth on the tour. They will be in Timber Lake or Pierre when you get this, and will be well on their way. They are going on a mission for friendship as your tour title implies, and will need your support to be good ambassadors. They gave a fine preview last evening as they performed for the Emmanuel Baptist Church. They were wonderfully well received by the people there.

Look forward to July now, when we have our third great Anniversary Event—the picnic on July 2nd and the special anniversary communion service on July 3rd. And remember to say thank you to Margaret Clark for carrying on so well with the Times while Carolyn Spong is on vacation.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

There will be a business meeting of the Men’s Fellowship on Friday, June 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Church Parlor. This is not a dinner meeting but refreshments will be served. All men are urged to be present for the final reading of the newly proposed Constitution and By-Laws of our Fellowship. This will be the last meeting of the summer.

PLAN FOR CAMPING

We hope that you will begin planning now to spend a part of your summer at one of these camps. Such a week will be a real investment not only in recreation but in spiritual enrichment as well. Circle the dates on your calendar and start looking forward to one of the best weeks of your life!

When you look at the world in a narrow way, how narrow it seems!
When you look at it in a mean way, how mean it appears!
When you look at it selfishly, how selfish it is!
But when you look at it in a broad, generous, friendly spirit,
What wonderful people you find in it.
