On this day which God has given us we welcome you to our Sanctuary. This is Margaret Clark, the Pastor's Assistant bringing you a word of greeting from the congregation and staff here at First Baptist. All of us come this morning in deep need of the spirit of Christ in our lives. It is because we have sensed this need that we turn once again to the House of God. Because it is not possible for you to be with us we bring this service to you wherever you are realizing that God is not bounded by time, or space or circumstance but is present wherever hearts are open to receive Him. Whether you have been with us before or come this morning as a stranger, we hope that before the service is over you will feel that you are with friends.

The scripture has been read this morning from Psalm 8. The Sanctuary Choir has just sung JOYFUL, JOYFUL WE ADORE THEE by Beethoven. The solo THE LIVING GOD by O'Hara will be sung by Cynthia Strom, soprano. Pastor Fredrikson is preaching.
this morning on the topic WHAT IS MAN? the fourth in a series on the great doctrine of the church.

We would hope that you might find it possible to attend the Evening Service tonight at 7 p.m. In keeping with our emphasis on marriage and family living, Pastor Fredrikson will preach on the topic THE WITNESS IN THE FAMILY.

Before we return to the sanctuary may I say once again how happy we are that you have joined us today. In these days of crisis and unrest many are troubled and anxious. Should you be in need of spiritual counsel or guidance please feel free to call our office so that we might have the opportunity of visiting with you. As we invite you we are mindful of the fact that this is God's House and it is in His Spirit that we welcome you and seek to minister to you.

Anthem—“Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee” Beethoven

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee. Praising Thee their sun above; Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, Drive the dark of doubt away; Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heavens reflect Thy rays Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea, Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever Blessing, ever blest,
Well spring of the joy of living, Ocean depth of happy rest;
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.
Ever singing march we onward, Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward In the triumph song of life.

What Is Man?

Introduction

1. We have been asking ourselves: What do we believe.
   - Crucially, important that we have a firm base fact.

2. Today we deal the great, haunting question:
   "What is Man?"
   - When I look at the heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou hast established, what is man that Thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that Thou dost care for him?

3. This is a seriously personal question.
   - Who am I?

Heir in God's Great Work

1. The Creation Story
   - All is created - Then Man.
   - The Venue then: "Let us make Man in Our own image."

2. Heir in the Great Work
   - All being our against him with freedom and
   - A life that can become a competitor.
This is like our own children
- They can be physically or mentally deficient
- They can die at an early age
- They can go morally astray
- They can cost upon a fortune

(3) Do they turn become the corruption or the crucifixion of creation
- This is so breathtaking
- God venturing past of his own deep
- This is the first great flower of love
- It can be followed all the way to Calvary
The Fall of Man

"Then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground."

1. Man has a unique relationship with all the rest of creation.
   - He is in the solidarity of the 6th Day. He is unique: animals, plants, rain, and sunlight are alien to man.
   - We stand before God as flesh and blood.
     - We are controlled by instincts and urges.
     - We can be studied microscopically.
     - When we die the organism stops as in any other animal.

2. Our first duty is not to escape from our fall.
   - He came to earth in human form.
   - He was born among cattle and sheep.
   - He ate with the animals of nature.
   - He taught us to pray: "Give us this day our daily bread."
   - He took fleshly matters for communion.

3. We are stewards of Creation.
   - All the rich things about us - atom and the seas.
   - We are made to sustain our bodies.
The Destiny of Man

"Then God breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being." (Gen 2:7)

"Why is man here? What is his destiny? What is his role?"

1. Man's Relation to God is Unique and Solitary.
   - He is Addressed by God
     - Commanded to have dominion over creation
     - Commanded to rule
   - He is responsible to God
     - Ultimately, he must give an account

2. Therefore, Man Has Unique Capacities
   - He Fears to Wrong
     - Man's long story of wrong
     - He is motivated by his deepest relationship
   - He Has Freedom
     - Father and Joy of Children
     - Noble and Unselfish Love
   - He Can Love
     - God, His Neighbor, His Family, His Family, His Family

The Tragedy of Man

1. Man worships himself on the fabrications of his own genius.

2. As his capacities and destiny, so nature.
   - his freedom becomes slavery.
   - the leader, community, and become a ruler.
   - his creative, becomes sexual license or a perversion of appetite.

3. The misses his role, the misses the norm.
   - Abominate, on the stage, turn somersaults, table a few lines, lounge on sofa, simmer in filing cabinet, with no direction, a style.

4. Romans 1:16-28

The Hope of Man

The Dream I Still Have
- Our destiny is not forgotten.

You still love us
- His love is seen in the Face of Christ on the Cross.

God has acted to redeem us.
- This is our incredible hope.

The Witness In The Family

1. None of our homes taxable where we come all alike, where there is where there isn’t.
2. Peace of People - The Witness of Esther Davis
   - More important than anything.
   - Everyone is different.
   - They all have tremendous possibilities.
3. Place of Friendship and Joy
   - We lack creativity.
   - We need common projects.
   - Making the most of events.
4. Place of Memories
   - What is important and what is not?
5. Place of Grown to Others
   - Not always the same crowd.
   - Great Evangelistic Strategy
