Where Are You?

The Great Mystery of Sin

1. The Father's death at the age of 94. He fell in Stuttgart. Then the beautiful night.
   - In the midst of still beauty there is the star of sin and wickedness.
   - Some of you knew that it is true.

2. The powerful account of sin in Genesis.
   - Sin does not come with a loud crash of battle drums but rather with the sound of other.

The Genesis Account

- The dialogue is strangely brief.
  - Satan is more clever than a man and knows his Bible better than a professor of Old Testament or a Jehovah's Witness.
  - Yet he does not come as anathematized monster to rot your paradise or take your innocence.
  - He says, this conversation will be whispers. The discussion will be of your matter.
3. The serpent: "You will not die, for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.

- You can't be God forever.
- Religion is fine, but don't get carried away with it.
- Sell it to the devil. Drink the head and bitter in months. Vamps, the blank account, or my professional success.

- Now come the distrust of the goodness of God.
- Fear about his goodness. He's really afraid of you.
- Like the boss who trusts them distrusts because maybe the employee is trying to get to him.
- Like the employee who is apt to understand, then there's a whitening campaign. He's just trying to be good to keep us in our place.
- Do we fear their keeping us from the one true because he doesn't want to let us in.
1. Man has now become rebellion against God.

- The serpent promises a knowledge that will make man autonomous and independent.
  - Way of knowing under God or against God.
  - A Cathedral or a Tomb of Rebel.
  - Medicine for healing or extermination.
  - Atoms for peace or destruction.

2. Now Man begins to accomplish.

- Offers forbidden fruit to fellowmen. Then Cain and Abel. Then the Tower of Babel.
- Adulterers seek to seduce others and thus secure accomplishments.
- Aim and separation from God always made us lonely and isolate us. Therefore,
  we seek perverse companions.

3. When God Come: "Where are You?"

- Man tries to hide
  - Until he can
    - Fraternity or guilt
    - In sophistication or laziness
    - In sex or death shortly.
    - In pleasure in fall one shelter.
4. These poor people try to hide. Yet seek forgiveness
   - They blame each other. Then the repent.
   - None thing wrong wrong with the apparatus.
   - There is a flaw in our natures.
   - As we come.
   - It is basic to humanize, our own human.

5. That it is us. It in me.
   - Wherever you are, there is potential love.
   - I formed the cross, I denied Christ.
   - I did not need thee in prison, I persecute the Church.

6. Now Christ says: "Where are you?"
   - We are angry but in love.
   - He came as Thy defender, I need not hide, not defend myself a weak excuse,
     No illusion about myself.
   - Christ says: I have nailed you tatters
     life to the cross. Your post is cancelled.
The Power of a Scattered Church

This is the Hour of Evangelism
- Depth and Power
- Difficult because so many people think they're Christians.

The Strategy of a Scattered Church
- Spurred by Persecution
- New Horizons and the test
- The Frontier Movement in this Country

The Power of this Church

1. The Message
   - Clearly understood, the Meaning of the Gospel
   - This is what God has Done
   - Explained in a variety of ways
   - Deliverance, Reconciliation, and New Life
   - This has happened to them
The Movement of the Dialogue

1. God said, "You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?"
- Can he really be that narrow and pride
- Surely he can't mean that because he is the God of life, he wants you to get ahead.

2. The Woman Defends: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; the God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden; neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'"
- Something wrong with the Woman Defending
  - How often we get involved in what we know
    by avoiding, "Lead us not into temptation."

The Singular with God
- All this but not that
  - No other God, no other Kingdom,
    no other Nation.
- He Knows our Face, Our Door
  - We all that we want him to have.
  - But that our Door - pride, fuss,
    indulgence, temptation, greed.
(4) Now come the appeal to the eye and the [illegible] of the woman
False the fruit.

- It looks so good, the simple, takes a small bite.

- Unfaithfulness to God begins at the [illegible] of life.

- Long time friend whom we love,
  Then an accident. At first we wince, then the losses so great,
  As finally we forget. After all
  Lady Come is singing on 7-11
  Soon we do not care.

- The Noble, then the appointment
  [illegible]

- Unfaithfulness to one wife. May have started with a friend, written a check in a store.
