"A Good Man in Bad Company"

1. Some time, our greatest growth in difficult circumstances.

2. David's situation
   - David's failure of faith:
     - David's fleeing to priests, tragedy
     - The killing of all priests except one.
     - Then the fleeing to the king of Gath.

Fear came because he did not have God's assurance.

- We rely too much on past experiences.
- We can rely on what experience.
- Even Vice or Hudson
- His help not enough

- We need the Daily Renewal.
We try to run from God’s speaking
- God scheme comfort but He also judges us
- We try to cover up, “All is well”

As we take refuge in the company of God’s enemies
- Want to achieve king of Gatha and cách Seth A. Wadson.
- Watch someone running from God,
  miserable, unhappy
- Give in to doubts and fear

We will finally cry out to God
- Psalm 34

Anthem—"Thanks To Thee, O Lord" ............................................................... Handel

Thanks to Thee, Lord, to Thee,
For Thou, O Lord, led Israel, Thy people, with Thee, thru the sea.
Thanks to Thee, Thanks be to Thee.
Like a flock it passed thru,
O Lord, Thy guiding hand protected it,
Thy loving kindness led it thru the sea.
Thanks to Thee, Lord, to Thee,
For Thou, O Lord, led Israel, Thy people, with Thee, thru the sea.
Thanks be to Thee.
