Resurrection Day

"Thine is the glory, Risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the vict'ry Thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
Kept the folded graveclothes where Thy body lay.

Lo! Jesus meets thee, Risen from the tomb;
Lovingly He greets thee, scatters fear and gloom;
Let His Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
For her Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting."

And when the Sabbath was past,
Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James,
And Salome, had bought sweet spices that they might come and anoint Him.
And very early in the morning they came to the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.
And ent'ring in the sepulchre, they saw a young man clothed in white raiment;
And they were sore afraid.
And he said to the women;
Be not afraid. He is risen!
He is not here, He is risen!
And go quickly and tell His disciples. He is risen!
Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!
Hymns of praise then let us sing unto Christ our heav'nly King,
Who endured the cross and grave, Sinners to redeem and save.
Alleluia!

By early morning light,
Ere yet the day was bright,
Three women came to seek their Lord;
But what their joy to hear the angel's message clear:
Fare not, for Christ the Lord is risen!
They saw upon the tomb, dispelling all its gloom,
And angel fair in raiment white.

To them the angel said: Mourn not your Lord as dead,
Fare not, For Christ the Lord is risen!
Shine forth, Oh glorious ray, O'er all the world today!
The Lord is risen! He lives on high!
Joy bring to those that mourn, Hope to the sorrowworn,
Fare not, For Christ the Lord is risen!

“CHURCH IN YOUR HOUSE”

Once again we are to have the opportunity of having Easter Sunday Evening Worship in the homes of our people. This can be a great experience of fellowship and sharing like that of the early disciples who invited Christ into their home. Insofar as possible we would like this to be a family experience. We hope you will bring your older children with you to your neighbor’s home. There will be a nursery at the church for smaller children. Please remember this Service will begin at 7:30 p.m. Anyone, including college students who may not have been invited to a home is urged to join some of the Church Staff in the Parlor for worship here. We are listing below the hosts and hostesses and the leaders for every home.

On this beautiful Easter day it is a special joy to welcome you to our Service. This is Margaret Clark, the Pastor's Assistant, bringing you a word of greeting from the congregation and staff here at First Baptist. We mark today the end of a pilgrimage in which we have journeyed in imagination the path Christ trod from Galilee to Jerusalem; from Gethsemane to Calvary and now we stand in wonder before an empty tomb. It is our hope that for each of us today may be a time when like Mary of old we hear the Master speak our name, realize that it is a Risen Lord we worship and come to know the Resurrection power in all of life.

We have shared this morning in a Service of Baptism.

The Combined Choirs have just sung the anthem DAWN IN THE GARDEN by Goldsworthy.

Later in the service the Sanctuary Choir will sing the anthem BY EARLY MORNING LIGHT by Dickenson with Mrs. Gene Loken as soloist. The scripture has been read this morning from the 15th Chapter of 1 Corinthians. Pastor Fredrikson is preaching this morning on the topic THANKS BE TO GOD following which we will share in a Service of Baptism.

Before we return to the Sanctuary may I say once again how happy we are that you are with us today. May your Easter be a joyous one. Should you be in need of spiritual counsel or guidance it is our hope that you will feel free to call our office so that we might have the opportunity of visiting with you. As we invite you we are aware that it is God's House to which we welcome you. It is in the Spirit of the Risen Christ that we seek to minister to you.
THE CHRISTIAN APPROACH TO LOVE, COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE

This is an invitation to a helpful learning experience. We will be continuing classes from 6 to 7 o'clock for the next three Sunday evenings -- March 11, 18, 25. These classes are planned to help all groups Junior High through adults to better understand themselves and the possibilities of life together in the family.

The classes for March 11 will deal with the Biblical basis toward an understanding of love, courtship and marriage.

Parents will meet in the Parlor with Pastor Fredrikson
Students in the Chapel with Pastor Rowe
Senior Highs in Room III with Pastor Babcock
Junior Highs in Youth Room with Rev. Walter Nickel

On March 18 there will be doctors present to lead all the groups dealing with the physical understanding of love, courtship and marriage.

Parents meet in the Parlor
Newly-married folks or those expecting to be married meet in the Chapel
Students will meet in Fellowship Hall
Senior Highs in Room III
Junior Highs will divide into two groups

On March 25 we will divide in the same way and deal with the psychological aspects of marriage. Doctors will once again lead the groups.

On March 18 and 25 the Evening Service will be centered in the meaning of the Christian family.
