   - If we are aware.

2. Worship Hour at Alleligate.
   - He went unwillingly.
   - Read Martin Luther's Commentary, heed.

3. How is it with you in worship?
   - Do we dodge in here distracted and hurried?
   - Are we frustrated by the affairs of life?
   - Does our mind wander from one thing to another?
   - Some great need, some new impulse, or occasion leads both within you.

The Helpless Man at the Gate

- Many times people are looking for the deeper.
  They come to ask alone my husband or daughter. "I want help for myself.
  Here, many around your home because they're family.
  They have come about some little physical matter, and they have a quiet spiritual need.

(3) Peter and John now come to the depths of need.
  Here are the physical witnesses, the quiet spiritual presence.
  Perhaps they remembered that instances of men being forever through the roof.
  This man needs healing - deliverance.
  Be needs what they can share with him?

"I give you what I have"

"In the Name of Jesus Christ, with"
  Here was the greatest need He could share.

(5) They had been with Jesus.
  They had been with Him.
  Again the kindling of deep faith.
  Their feet formed of Their.
4.

(2) They Had Passed Through; the Death and Resurrection.
   - Known the Comfort of Affection
   - The Power of Victory.

(3) That They Had Been Through Pentecost.
   - Now He Was the Inner Crown.
   - He Had Shared the City with Them.
     - Intimately, and Personally.
     - In Tune with Him They Needed.
     - So He, too, was the Inner Crown.
   - Their Fingers with the Helper Crown.

(4) How His Man Discerned As He, Had Received
   - The Same Willing, Leaping, and Devotion.
