Anthem — "What Are These Which Are Arrayed In White Robes"—
Hallelujah! What are these that are arrayed in white robes,
And whence came they?
These are they which came out of great tribulation,
And have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
Hallelujah! Therefore are they before the throne of God,
And serve Him day and night in His temple.
They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more;
Neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.
For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them,
And shall lead them unto living fountains of waters:
And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the harlot's house, and bring out from it the woman, and all who belong to her, as you swore to her." So the young men who had been spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her; and they brought all her kindred, and set them outside the camp of Israel. And they burned the city with fire, and all within it; only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the Lord. But Rahab the harlot, and her father's household, and all who belonged to her, Joshua saved alive; and she dwelt in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

"My faith Rahab, the harlot did not finish with those who were disobedient, because she "set them friendly welcome to the spies."
