

Fritz Perls, father of Gestalt psychotherapy and an atheist, during the time I was studying with him puckishly shaped the original version of what he sardonically, yet plaintively, called "The Gestalt Prayer." At meals with him I picked at it, and finally came up with what here's I've added scriptures to the lines of, for your biblical meditation: Unusual for my thinksheets, there's a lot of room for you to write your own musings. [Italics are my revisions.]

1. Scriptures you'd like to add?
 2. You may want to use the other side for writing a personal prayer using my revised Gestalt prayer as a flow-outline.
