

dramatizes Israel's deliverance from Egypt to illuminate the ethical meaning of Israel's redemption:

| . . . . . IN EGYPT . . . . .                   |                                         | . . . . . TO SINAI . . . . .      |    |    |                                             | . . . . . AT SINAI . . . . .                                                                   |               |                                    |                       |               |                                                 |                  |
|------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|----|----|---------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| Israel's Work in BONDAGE                       |                                         | God's work in Israel's REDEMPTION |    |    |                                             | Israel's Work directed to GOD'S GLORY                                                          |               |                                    |                       |               |                                                 |                  |
| 1                                              | 5:22-6:9                                | 6:10                              | 12 | 13 | 18                                          | 19-20                                                                                          | 21-24         | 25                                 | 31                    | 32-34         | 35                                              | 40               |
| "made their lives bitter with hard service..." | "I am the Lord""I have""I will" | "By this you shall know: ..."     |    |    | "Now I know that the Lord is greater" 18:11 | "Ye have seen what I did.""I am" . . . . ."Thou shalt" 20:1-17Ten Com- mand- ments | Legis- lative |                                    | "Thou shalt make...." |               |                                                 | "And he made..." |
| "Who is the Lord...I know not the Lord" 5:2    |                                         | The 10 Plagues                    |    |    |                                             |                                                                                                |               | Pattern 25:1-9Plan 25:10-31:18 | THE TABERNACLE        | Counter- Plan | 36-39 Fashioned39 Assembled40 Finished. |                  |

M A P

The main geographical features of Exodus

A ground-plan of the Tabernacle