Gideons Point Way to Those in Trouble

At the state meeting of the Gideons, organization of Christian commercial traveling men, in Wichita last week, considerable stress was placed on the index which is pasted in the front of each of the Bibles placed by the Gideons in the hotels, prisons and hospitals of the country.

There are verses to suit every trouble and for those who are not familiar with the Bible certain verses have been designated. The list is as follows:

If you are in trouble, read Psalm 34.

If trade is poor, read Psalm 37.

If very prosperous, read I Cor. 10:12.

If overcome and backsliding, read James 1, Hosea 14:4-9.

If tired of sin, read Psalm 51, Luke 18:9-14.

If you desire something new, read John 3, Rev. 21 and 22.

If you desire peace, power and plenty, read John 14.

If you are lonesome and discouraged, read Psalms 23 and 27.

If you are losing confidence in men, read I Cor. 13.

If you desire peaceful slumbers, read Psalm 121.
