

http://onfaith.washingtonpost.com/onfaith/panelists/willis_e_elliott/2007/09/wiccan_said_reverend_my_sister.html

My response to wiccan

ON FAITH - WASHINGTON POST - WILLIS ELLIOTT

wiccan said:

Reverend-

My sisters have taken you to task, quite correctly in my eyes, for your misconceptions (to put it charitably). I cannot improve on their postings, so instead, I ask you to pray with me. If you open your eyes and your heart, you just might learn something valuable. Blessed Be.

A Wiccan Prayer for Peace

Gracious Lady, Mother of all that lives, we call out to you to guide all of your children. Bless our eyes, that we may see each other with love. Bless our ears, that we may hear each other with understanding. Bless our mouths, that we may speak to each other with compassion. Bless our hands, that they may heal, not harm. Bless our feet, that we may walk beside each other in peace. Great Goddess, Mother of birth and death and rebirth, Goddess of the green Earth that feeds us, of the creatures that roam upon its surface, and the tides that lap its shores, Lady of the Cauldron, let all your children drink of its wisdom, and know that all names of the Divine are but one Name, and all worship but a dance to the singular music of Life.

Thank you, wiccan.

A great prayer which I've no doubt God receives with joy even though it's misdirected to the Goddess.

BY WILLIS E. ELLIOTT | SEPTEMBER 15, 2007; 5:32 PM

Comments

Please report offensive comments below.

The comments to this entry are closed.