

Oct. 19 Called meeting 1:20 P.m.

Motion made and carried that Olympian Literary society meet every two weeks. Motion made and carried that treasurer be given permission to pay bills as fast as money was paid into treasury . In view of the fact that the Sgt. at arms for Olympia is attending K.U, it was necessary to elect a new one. Mr. Teague was the only nominee so was unanimously elected to that office.

Motion made and carried that the former students who are in school again this year and who were Olympians, be reinstated into Society. Those instated were Lurine Skidmore, Romola Ireland, and Bernice Settles. Subject of who should be Olympia's critic discussed to some length, but final decision was postponed to a later date. Meeting adjourned LD.

Oct.26 Literary Session.

Program. Song by Society 103
 Devotionals- Chaplain Cooper
 Current Event - D. McClung
 Dance of Goblins - Dollie Dennis
 Halloween Costumes Helen Bond.
 Gold and Blue Society
 Critic's Report

Business meeting followed. Meetings of last Meetings read & approved.

Three names were presented for membership; they were BHManual, Ernest Johnson, & Gail Shields. Pres. appointed Romala Ireland as chairman of a committee to arrange question for Olympian - Philal debate.

Arthur Phelps was appointed chairman of a committee to repaint the Olympian door.

Edgar Cook was appointed as chairman of the reception committee to welcome comers at the door.

Nomination for critic were Miss Wenzelman and Prof. Ritchie. Miss Wenzelman was