
The members of the Olympian Society met in a special session to elect a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Ward’s failure to return to school. The nominating committee presented the following as nominees:

Verna Halbert
Ruth Bowerman
Laura Berneel

A motion was made and carried that the constitution be temporarily suspended in order to elect the trustee immediately. Verna Halbert was elected as trustee.

Motion for Adjournment.

Edna Schreiner, Secy.

The trustees met immediately following this meeting and elected Miss Halbert as President. Dates for the reception and the first meeting were discussed and plans were made to assure some interest in the society.

Adjournment

Edna Schreiner, Secy.

Sept 30 1920.

The Olympian literary met in a special session at 1:30 October 4th was chosen as the date for the reception. Miss Bowerman’s resignation was accepted and Miss Ruth How was elected to fill the vacancy.

Adjournment

Edna Schreiner, Secy.