Oct 19

Called meeting 1:20 P.M.

Motion made and carried that Olympian Literary society meet every two weeks. Motion made and carried that treasurer be given permission to pay bills as fast as money was paid into treasury. In view of the fact that the 1st at arm's off Olympians in attending T.A., it was necessary to elect a new one. Mr. Sturgeon was the only nominee unanimous elected to that office.

Motion made and carried that the former students, who are in school again this year and who were Olympians, be reunited into society. Those reinstated were Lurina Skramme, Pamela Ireland, 2. Pomme Selliott. Subject of who should be Olympian critic discussed to some length, but final decision was postponed to a later date. Meeting adjourned.

Oct 26

Literary Session.

Program  Song by Society 103

Devotional — Chaplain Cooper

Current Event — Dr. McClung

Dance of Jollity — Della Lewis

Halloween Customs Helen Bond

Gold and Blue Society

Critics’ Report

Business meeting followed. Meetings of last week’s names were presented for membership; they were B.H. Moncrief, Ernest Johnson, Earl Shields. Pres. appointed Pamela Ireland as chairman of a committee to arrange question for Olympian debate.

Arthur Phelps was appointed chairman of a committee to repaint the Olympian door.

Edgar Cook was appointed chairman of the reception committee to welcome comers at the door.

Nomination for critics were Mrs. Wengelman and Prof. Ritchie. Mrs. Wengelman was