

REMEMBER WICHITA 15 YEARS AGO?

Two hundred fifty salesmen from the Wichita business world were treated to a novel entertainment at the Kansas club Wednesday night when John Milhault of the firm of McVicar, Howard & Milhault put on a tableau and monologue illustrating "How to Sell to the Average Customer."

Rockford township has about four hundred bushels of wheat in storage at the present time, according to Ed Braden, township assessor, who has completed his work and made his return to the county assessor.

T. J. Guilfoil, secretary Wichita Federal Land bank, and other employes sent $50 to William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, yesterday for Red Cross work.

W. M. Irwin of 3235 East Murdock avenue, purchased the two-story residence property at 3204 Country Club Place, yesterday for $8,000. He will occupy it as his home.

Dr. Howard Norton was the speaker at yesterday's meeting in the Better Baby rooms at city hall. His subject was "The Nutrition of Children," and a number of points were brought out emphatically.

Mrs. W. C. Coleman and Mrs. Frank Holt who are attending the Women's Foreign Baptist conference at Omaha, Neb., are expected home tomorrow.