

TEXTBOOK INFORMATION

Students at the residential colleges in Ottawa, Kansas and Surprise, Arizona, students at the adult campuses and students online may order their textbooks through the Ottawa University Website. Each campus location on the website provides a link to the University's bookstore. Students submit the classes in which they are enrolling and are provided quick links to those specific courses. A listing of the required textbooks and other materials, if applicable, is provided for each course offered in the upcoming term. The ISBN number for each textbook is identified. If students wish, they may use another vendor of their choice.
