

Exit Interview Requirement

Students who had obtained a Federal Student Loan who graduate, withdraw from all courses, or who are enrolled less than half-time will receive a notification from the Financial Aid department that they need to complete a Student Loan Exit Interview. This is an online process where the student will submit updated contact and reference information and will relearn their options for deferment, forbearance and repayment.